

Before the Board of Zoning Adjustment, D.C.

PUBLIC HEARING—July 14, 1965

Appeal #8264 George Washington University, appellant.

The Zoning Administrator District of Columbia, appellee.

On motion duly made, seconded and unanimously carried the following Order was entered on August 25, 1965:

ORDERED:

That the appeal to erect additional story on roof of Biological Science Building to be used by the Department of Biology of the University at 2029 G St. N.W., part of lot 838, square 102, be granted for the following reasons:

(1) From the records and the evidence adduced at the hearing, the Board finds that the erection of an additional story on this existing four story brick building, is not likely to become objectionable to neighboring property because of noise, traffic, number of students, or other objectionable conditions.

(2) Appellant has submitted to the Board a plan for developing the campus as a whole.

(3) The Department of Highways and Traffic offers no objection to the granting of this appeal.

(4) The National Capital Planning Commission has reported that the erection of this addition should have no adverse effect on the surrounding residential district.

(5) There was no objection to the granting of this appeal registered at the public hearing.
